TENTATIVE ACCOMMODATION AND SOCIAL PROGRAMME:

VENUE & ACCOMMODATION:

The most westerly of the Balearic Islands, Ibiza has adapted the mariner's lifestyle it enjoyed in the past to modern times with unbeatable charm. The most beautiful of the Pitiusan Islands offers visitors hidden corners to lose themselves in untouched nature and relax in peace and quiet as well as places where they can enjoy the brightest and liveliest entertainment 24 hours a day. The historic legacy of ancient civilisations, such as Greek, Carthaginian, Roman, Byzantine, Visigoth and Muslim, contributes to a wonderful city, the ancient centre of which was declared World Heritage by UNESCO in 1999. The secret of Ibiza's magic is the magnificent combination of rural and traditional life and values with the greatest mixture of nationalities and cultures ever imagined.

Hotel Fiesta Palm Beach

C/ Playa d'en Bossa s/n,
07817 Sant Jordi de Ses Salines
Ibiza Island
www.fiestahotelgroup.com

Fiesta Club Palm Beach. The hotel is located on the sea front of Playa d'en Bossa, one of the best-known beaches on the island, a mere 5km from Ibiza town centre. It stands out for its large swimming pool and bungalow-style structure, which depicts the typical architecture of the Mediterranean islands.

TENTATIVE SOCIAL PROGRAMME:

- 16 September 2009 - Welcoming cocktail
- 17 September 2009 - Typical dinner
- 18 September 2009 - Tapas and walking night tour of Ibiza
- 19 September 2009 - Boating to Formentera island (optional)

HOW TO GET TO IBIZA:

By Sea

Ibiza is connected by sea with the Peninsula from the cities of Barcelona, Valencia and Denia. During the summer, the service is daily.

The shipping companies that travel to the island are:

Acciona-Trasmediterránea
Baleària Eurolinies Marítimes
Iscomar Ferrys

Please consult their websites for information about timetables.
Special discounts may be obtainable for passengers and cars (MARLAW 2009).

By air

This is the most usual way of getting to Ibiza. Ibiza has an efficient airport, through which four million passengers pass a year. The airport is situated 7.5 km from the city of Ibiza.

The island holds regular flights with the main cities on the Peninsula (Madrid, Barcelona, Valencia, Malaga,) as well as with the island of Mallorca.

The airline companies that fly to Ibiza are:

AIR EUROPA
IBERIA
SPANAIR
VUELING

There are also direct connections from several European cities.

The airline companies that operate are:

AIR BERLIN
